Volunteers are the driving force behind the day to day care provided to the animals. Volunteer activities can include feeding, grooming, laundry, cleaning, and more. Volunteering is a great way to feel like you are making a difference in the world. Even a few hours a week or a month can make a really important contribution to the animals. Project Paw has the need for all kinds of volunteers; short term, long term, young, middle, and older. You may try out volunteering and see how much it can mean to the animals and to you.

If you are interested in becoming a volunteer, please visit the shelter so you can see how help is needed and the environment that you'll be working in. Staff spend many hours a month orienting new volunteers, and only a few people return after their first day. It's physical work and you will get dirty! The humane Society needs people that will be able to provide help on a regular basis so that the time we spend with new people will ultimately be returned to the animals with long-term help. Some examples of the help needed are: Help with the cats – cleaning, socializing, photographing, washing dishes/litter boxes. Help with the dogs (if over 18) – walking (with 2-hour training class and weekly commitment of 2 hours), cleaning, photographing, washing dishes. General housekeeping – cleaning the bathing tub, mopping, washing windows, painting, etc Handyman help, Fundraising Event help If you want to become involved, come on down to The Humane Society during our open hours of 12-5pm Tuesday thru Friday and 11-4pm Saturday to check them out and fill out a volunteer application. Volunteer applications can also be filled out online via the web address above.
