ADOLESCENT CRISIS RESPITE PROGRAM

GREATER BINGHAMTON HEALTH CENTER

Program is located at	425 Robinson St. Binghamton, NY 13904
Point of Contact	Kathryn Simons, Program Coordinator
Phone Number	(607) 773-4625
Email	kathryn.simons2@omh.ny.gov

What population is served by this program?	Adolescents ages 13-17. 12 year olds considered for crisis stay upon determination of appropriateness.
What are the programs eligibility requirements?	Crisis admissions require adolescents to manage themselves safely in an outpatient setting, without evidence of suicidal intent or plan. Adolescents who are not at risk of imminent danger to themselves or others are eligible. Adolescents using the 3-5-day respite stay are required to be in ongoing counselling, with a primary mental illness diagnosis.
How to refer:	Crisis admission referrals can come from CPEP, licensed providers (including school social workers or psychologists) or through the ACR coordinator if on duty. Respite referrals can come from primary therapists or other service providers. If being submitted by community service provider or school, referral must have sign off by adolescent's primary therapist for counselling and diagnosis verification.

Services

What Services Does the Program Provide:	The goal of the ACR is to assist adolescents and their families in resolving crisis situations and averting the need for hospitalizations or placement outside the home. Services provided include supervised living arrangements; reinforcement of treatment goals and objectives; crisis intervention; linkages to community mental health services; collaboration with established treatment providers; recreational activities and outings.

Additional information

Please include any additional information about the programs goals & objectives	The ACR staff approach adolescents and their families from a trauma informed perspective, understanding that the key to successful experiences is building connections and relationships. Professionals are encouraged to refer Adolescents who are struggling with disciplinary problems in school, especially if out of school suspension is being considered. Alternative placements like the ACR can sometimes provide a better look into underlying issues that have an impact on behaviors. Adolescent being considered for admission would need to meet referral requirements including being safe to themselves and around others and no active/regular use of substances.

ADOLESCENT DAY TREATMENT

GREATER BINGHAMTON HEALTH CENTER

Program is located at	425 Robinson St. Binghamton, NY 13904
Point of Contact	Barbara Barnes, RN- Intake Coordinator
Phone Number	(607) 773-4223
Email	barbara.barnes@omh.ny.gov

What population is served by this program?	Adolescents ages 13-18.
What are the programs eligibility requirements?	ADT accepts adolescents who are experiencing emotional problems which prevent them from meeting the demands of school, developing a social network and which may also contribute to conflict in family life. The emotional problems must be so debilitating that services cannot effectively be rendered in a less clinically intensive environment. In order to attend ADT, an adolescent must be classified by their home school district CSE and their individual education plan must specify ADT as the education placement. ADT is a 12-month program. All participants will follow the BOCES school calendar year and attend a 6-week summer program.
How to refer:	Referrals are accepted from any source. The most common referral sources are schools, clinics, private practitioners, hospitals, and residential programs.

Services

What Services Does the Program Provide:	Students receive an intensive level of treatment in an educational environment supportive of their mental health needs. ADT is designed to teach coping mechanisms to reduce stress, problem solve and develop social skills to assure a successful return to their school while promoting improved family interactions. Services are provided by a team of professional including a psychiatrist, psychologist, social worker, nurse and special education teachers. The following services are offered: health screenings; social, psychological, psychiatric and educational assessments. Treatment may include individual, group and family therapy. Psychopharmacology is offered if needed. BOCES provides the special educational component of ADT.

COORDINATED CHILDREN'S SERVICES INITIATIVE (CCSI) CATHOLIC CHARITIES

Program is located at	86-88 Walnut St. Binghamton, NY 13905
Point of Contact	Beth Palmieri
Phone Number	(607) 584-7800 x499
Email	bpalmieri@ccbc.net

What population is served by this program?	Catholic Charities Coordinated Children's Services Initiative (CCSI) serves families with youth ages 0-21. In 2016 CCSI admitted 90 youth. 57% were in the 6-12-year-old age range. 26% in the 13-15-year-old range. Youth do NOT have to have a mental health diagnosis for admission to CCSI Catholic Charities. In 2016, 3 youth did not have a diagnosed mental health disorder. Coordinated Children's Services Initiative (CCSI) is a program designed to prevent out of home placement for high needs children who are at imminent risk of placement. CCSI utilizes a unique method to assist families in achieving this goal. This entire program is parent run and led, with every person on the Staff being a parent or grandparent of a special needs child. Parent Partners empower CCSI parents to discover their positive attributes, needs, concerns and any barriers that are keeping the family from attaining success. Parent Partners assist families with developing advocacy skills and guide them through a process of change.
What are the programs eligibility requirements?	The program eligibility requirements are: At a High Risk of Placement without further involvement, intervention & coordination of services and 2 or more service systems involved with the youth. Service systems are; Office of Mental Health, Committee on Special Education, Office of Persons with Developmental Disabilities, Department of Social Services, Probation Department, and Office of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Services. These systems are all placing systems. An identified youth must be involved with two of these systems, for example, attend counseling at Greater Binghamton Health Center and be on PINS Diversion.
How to refer:	Referrals are received through the Broome County Single Point of Accountability (SPOA) committee. Referrals will also be accepted directly to the CCSI Coordinator. These "direct" referrals are primarily seen because the youth does not have a mental health diagnosis, or a CCSI parent partner is the only service the parent requires from SPOA. Service Providers or families can always contact the CCSI Coordinator with any questions.

Services

What Services Does the Program Provide:	Every family referred to CCSI receives a parent partner. Because of the experiences with their own families, they are able to empathize with other families in similar situations. Although parent partners are not therapists, they are a support for parents enduring difficult times. Parent partners are advocates for families: accompanying them to meetings & appointments, referring them to appropriate resources and assisting them in making sense of the information they are receiving. Parent Partners meet with the referred families to hear the needs/concerns of the family, as well as to aid them in identifying their strengths & goals. Wraparound meetings are organized involving all appropriate service providers, friends and/or family members whom the family chooses to invite. At the meeting an action plan is developed, based upon the strengths & challenges of the family. After the meeting, Parent Partners follow up with the family to see how well the plan is being implemented. Parent partners offer two support groups to families. An evening group is offered once a month, a luncheon group three times a year, and a family picnic in July.

Additional information

Please include any additional information about the programs goals & objectives	Established in Broome County in 1994, the CCSI process continues to divert extremely high needs children from costly out of home placements and psychiatric hospitalizations. In 2016, we served 134 families and 130 children successfully remained in their homes (placement diversion rate of 96%). These placements include placements through OMH, DSS, Probation and OPWDD and indicate a cost savings to the county of $10,328,909 in the year 2016 alone. Additionally, both families and providers report a high level of satisfaction with the CCSI process and the results they achieved. Comments from families include the following: "The services I received were outstanding. First (of a host of) agencies that actually got me headed in the right direction to get my son (and my family) the help we needed. It was great!! The agency was a lifesaver to us. We tried for years to get help. Catholic Charities went above and beyond to help our family and we are very grateful" CCSI is based on a system of core principles and values which include the following: Family Driven: Families are viewed as partners and colleagues. Community Based: Children are best served in their own homes, schools and communities. Team Supported: Families and professionals are united in a collaborative effort to create a seamless system. Strengths-Based: Services focus on strengths and competencies. Individualized Care: Interventions and supports are available to "wrap" services around the needs of each child and their family. Culturally Competent: Services are delivered with an understanding of the individual culture of a family as well as the ethnic, cultural, social and environmental framework in which a family exists.
